Tri State Indie Enters into Agreement with Digital Planet for Virtual Back Office & Technology Services

MECHANICSBURG, PA, September 15, 2010 - - South Central Pennsylvania based Digital Planet today announced that it has reached contract terms with Tri State Indie (TSI) to provide Virtual Back Office (VBO) and technology services for their business operation. Under the terms of the agreement, TSI will utilize several of Digital Planet's VBO finance and business development services. In addition, several specialized technology solutions will be developed over the next year for use by the TSI staff at concerts and events throughout the mid-Atlantic region.

Stephanie Seiple, President of Tri State Indie states "We chose Digital Planet because we have similar business philosophies. They are flexible and willing to work with us as we grow our business. This will keep our overhead to a minimum during that growth." Seiple continues, "their advice has been invaluable as we develop our plan for the next year."

"Tri State Indie is an ideal company for our virtual back office services," states Digital Planet President Rick Gurba. "They are experiencing tremendous growth since their company started earlier this year. The Digital Planet team has the expertise and tools to compliment their innovative services."
